

Tavapadon for Parkinson's Disease: Public Meeting

Thursday • October 1, 2026 • 9:00am PT

Registration Link: HERE

Virtual Meeting Agenda

Connect with ICER on our social media channels

|                                   |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               |
|-----------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 9:00 AM –9:20 AM PT   | Meeting Convened and Opening RemarksSarah K. Emond, MPP, President and CEO, ICER                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 9:20 AM –10:00 AM PT  | Presentation of the Clinical EvidenceJeffrey Tice, MD, Professor of Medicine,University of California, San Francisco                                                                                                                           |
| 10:00 AM –10:40 AM PT | Presentation of the Economic ModelSurrey Walton, PhD, MA, Professor, College of Pharmacy-Pharmacy Systems Outcomes and Policy; Assistant Director,Center for Pharmacoepidemiology and Pharmacoeconomics,University of Illinois Chicago |
| 10:40 AM –10:55 AM PT | Public Comments and Discussion                                                                                                                                                                                                                         |
| 10:55 AM –11:45 AM PT | Lunch Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                            |
| 11:45 AM –12:50 PM PT | CTAF Vote on Clinical Effectiveness and ValueModerator: Elizabeth J. Murphy, MD, DPhil,Professor of Medicine, UCSF, Chief, Division of Endocrinology,San Francisco General Hospital                                                        |
| 12:50 PM –1:00 PM PT  | Break                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 1:00 PM –2:30 PM PT   | Policy RoundtableModerator: Sarah K. Emond, MPP, President and CEO, ICER                                                                                                                                                                           |
| 2:30 PM –3:00 PM PT   | Reflections from CTAF                                                                                                                                                                                                                                  |
| 3:00 PM PT                 | Meeting Adjourned                                                                                                                                                                                                                                      |